“ You are laying strong foundations for building a healthy
Christian society “

Our listeners and readers write to us

Dear friends,

The following excerpts of letters received from our Armenian listeners or readers will give you some insight about the impact our ministry has on the general public in Armenia (we have only very slightly edited the English translation provided by our fellow workers).

S. T. writes :

Being a book lover and a person living by Christian spiritual values and Biblical commandments, I have always read your books and found answers to many questions that resonate within me. Listening to your broadcasts has enriched my knowledge of the Bible. You make the ideas of Christianity and the truths of faith accessible, simple, yet deeply insightful, bringing forth jewels from the source of divine light for your listeners. In this turbulent and constantly changing world, through your books and radio broadcasts, you are laying strong foundations for building a healthy Christian society - an understanding society with clear and firm knowledge of its faith, its history, and the enlightening truths passed down through centuries. Thank you for your work, a divinely inspired effort to bring abundant Christian knowledge to all of us.

M.T., from the town Yeghegnadzor, writes :

In today's busy and fast-changing world, people often get lost in the flow of information and forget about the "Mystery of Eternity." When this happens, they move away from God. But "God is light, and there is no darkness in Him." Every person commits sins, and therefore needs repentance. If we say we have no sin, we are only deceiving ourselves, and the truth is not in us. But if we confess our sins, the Almighty God will forgive and cleanse us from all wrongdoing. I would also like to briefly touch upon your messages about God's blessings.

The world itself is a blossoming garden full of many kinds of joys. For true happiness, a person needs hope, faith, and love. I pray to God that evil may not touch us, "for we cannot act against the truth, but only for the truth." I deeply value your pure faith and your God-pleasing service filled with wisdom. May the Lord grant you peaceful and carefree days.

We also received the following letter from S.G., an Evangelical pastor :
First of all, I am glad that you have written a spiritual book, which, if I am not mistaken is not your first book. I am always happy, when our Armenian brothers publish spiritual books. Our Armenian nation has always been unique, talented and has shone in all directions. Now is the time for Armenians to shine also in the spiritual direction with their spiritual maturity and to have their contribution to the publication of spiritual books not only among Armenians but also among other nations.

I must confess that I have not read your book in its entirety, despite my great passion to do so. My busy schedule does not allow it. But I promise to correct my mistake. I have read a little, especially the chapters that interested me. And I must say that I liked it very much. Your comments were biblical, correct and did not cause disputes between denominations. I don't like or share everyone's book, but your book was so appropriate, measured, that I have gifted it to many book-loving spiritual people and even pastors of various denominations.

We are greatly encouraged by these letters and would like to invite you (if you do not already do it) to consider sending a donation to our ministry (details are provided below). Apart from the work in progress on our Bible translation in Eastern Armenian, it will also help us continue publishing Bible study books or devotionals : they are very much needed to foster in Armenia an understanding of Scripture according to Scripture (Heb. 4:12).

May our Lord bless us all as we continue laboring in His field!

Warmly in Christ,

Rev Eric Kayayan
